

Understanding Health Care Reform

Marketplace Subsidy

This visual aid does not make any representations or guarantee your circumstances will yield these results. This is only meant to inform you of some general requirements that could qualify or disqualify you from Medicaid, CHIP, and/or Marketplace tax credits based on health care reform information available as of June 1, 2013. Regulatory requirements are subject to change.

Other requirements also apply, such as married must file joint tax returns, you cannot be claimed as a dependent on someone else's tax return, you cannot be incarcerated, and you cannot be eligible for certain other types of coverage like Medicare, TRICARE, etc.

This material should not be considered as a substitute for legal, tax and/or actuarial advice. Contact the appropriate professional counsel for such matters. These materials are not exhaustive and are subject to possible changes in applicable laws, rules, and regulations and their interpretations.